The sale will open October

THOS. L. JONES.

Odessa.

Get fuel and feed them get fuel and feed again has been the order of the day here for a week.

On Wednesday night it began snowing about 7 o'clock and continued for 24 hours.

The snow varied from 12 to 17 inches, no drifts measured. It is the deepest snow for years.

A good-sized crowd attended Isaac Stephens' sale Saturday.

Everything sold well. Walter Anderson also sold his property at same time and place.

Both Stephens and Anderson will leave this week for Missouri with their families to make their home.

We regret to lose their citizenship, but commend them to the good people of Missouri or elsewhere.

Mrs. Mary Gardner and little son Jacob, of near Owingsville; Russell Woodward, wife and little daughter, of Peble, Grover C. Phelps and wife, of Owingsville, and S. T. Henderson, of near Harper's, were the guests of W. S. Anderson and family Tuesday of last week.

It has been said that there are many people in the world that can not stand prosperity and it does look like it from the number of people that have gone and are going soon from this county to the West.

What is the matter here? Is stuff worth nothing here? Well, let's see: Our corn is selling at 60 to 70c per bushel; wheat from $1 to $1.25; tobacco from 15 to 20c per pound; cattle from 10 to 12c; hogs from 9 to 10c; and sheep from 8 to 9c.

Let us see for them; horses from $100 to $300 for ordinary grade per head, and Mr. Mule sold last week at Paris as high as $800 per pair.

If you own a farm you can get from $40 to $100 per acre for it and you have lost your year's labor, or at least that price has been offered and failed to get labor.

And if you are sick or afflicted and unable to work you can't find a place on earth that feeds a man any loafers free of charge as Bath county. So it does look like there is too much of something or not enough of anything.

"Did you enjoy your Christmas dinner, Tommy?"

"Rather! I had to take four different kinds of medicine."

HERE'S A BARGAIN FOR YOU!

DAILY COURIER-JOURNAL

By mail three months and THE OUTLOOK

for $2.00.

The price of the Daily Courier-Journal is $5.00 a year, $1.50 for three months.

We have made arrangements whereby we will accept orders for that paper and ours during January, February and March only at the price for both named above.

Send in your subscription at once and keep posted on proceedings of the Legislature. Sunday Courier-Journal not included in this offer.

Send 50c additional if Sunday issue is desired. The Weekly Courier-Journal is just as good as ever. We can furnish the Weekly and our paper both one year for $1.50.

Orders must be sent to this paper, not the Courier-Journal, to get advantage of this cut-rate.

SAFE EITHER WAY.—An Elk county citizen, who had just graduated from a law school, wrote to a prominent lawyer in an Arkansas town to find out what chance there would be for him in that part of the country.

"I am a Republican in politics, and an honest lawyer," he wrote.

"If you are an honest lawyer," he wrote, "you will have no competition, and if you are a Republican, the game law will protect you."

—Kansas City Journal.

MISSING HIS ONLY CHANCE.—There once lived a woman who never gave her husband a chance to say a word.

The moment he opened his mouth she closed it with a torrent of words. It happened that he fell ill when his wife was out of town, and before she could get home death came and took him away.

"I would feel better about it," he said, still saying between her sobs, "if I could have been with John when he died. There must have been some last words he wanted to say to me."

STERN PARRY (bringing out the strap).—"Now, Tommy, I suppose you know why I am going to whip you, don't you?"

Little Tommy—"Yes, sir; you are going to whip me because I am so small."

"It was as big as the man next door who wouldn't dare lay a finger on me."

STOUT PARRY.—Are you aware, sir, that you deliberately stuck your umbrella in my car last evening?

Little Bifferton.—Very careless of me, I am sure. I would not have done it, and would it be too much trouble to ask you to return it?—London Telegraph.

ORIGINALITY.—"Why did you accept George?"

"He was so much more original than the other fellows."

"In what way?"

"He asked me to be his wife first."

GRIPPING READY.—"George, brush up all of the revolvers in stock."

"And put a display of them in the front window."

"What's the occasion?"

"There is to be a peace conference in town."

MISS BROWN.—How do you remember what you give people last year?

Miss Harlem.—I always keep a card index of Christmas gifts.—Judge.

"Advice," said Uncle Eben, "is sumpin' like singin'. You either give it free till you're tired of listening or else it's so expensive you can't afford scarcely any."

—Washington Star.

Excessive anger against human stupidity is itself one of the most provoking of all forms of stupidity.—Van Radowitz.

At Christmas times there are two sorts of people—those who get to give, and those who give to get.—Judge.

THURSDAY JAN. 13, 1910.

WHAT the world will Teddy
do when he learns of the dismissal of his friend Pinchot for doing just what Teddy would have done under the circumstances?

The signs are that President Taft will have a stormy term of office. There is a risk of severe public condemnation because of the dismissal from office of Chief Forester Pinchot, who was zealous in trying to save public lands
from the grasp of the crafters.

THE Redistricting Commission
appointed by Gov. Willson prepared and reported probably as fair and good a redistricting bill for Kentucky as can be made from present information. Bath is added to Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery for the Senatorial district and remains with Rowan for the Representative district.

UNCLE JO CANNON felt the force of the insurgents last week when they combined with the Democrats to take the appointment of the Ballenger-Pinchot investigating committee.

Uncle Jo is not his discreet
off the battlefield
politically with his boots on.

SENATOR JOHN L. VICE enjoys the distinction of being the first to introduce the County Unit bill in the General Assembly this session. As to the attitude of his Bath county constituents on the measure it is a question. The Prohibition element applaud it, of course, while those whose close neighbors for "New Market" would be destroyed by the enactment condemn it. Apparently the Pro-his are the most numerous.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondents must get their items to us Monday if they expect them to be printed. And please remember that visits between neighbors are not news.

CROOKS.

Mrs. Nellie Fitch and children of Olympia, are visiting her son Mrs. Joe Williams.

Mrs. Henry Warren closed her school at Sour Spring, Thursday
until the weather gets better.

Tup Jones moved Sunday to Kendall's Spring.

Ann Lemaster, of Mt. Sterling, visited here last week.

Lum McCarty is quite poorly.

We are having the coldest spell
of weather we have had in years.

Slate Valley.

Mrs. J. K. Jones is sick.

We are having zero weather
with the snow fourteen inches deep.

Mrs. Chris Garner, Mrs. Wm.
Traylor and Mrs. Clarence Horseman visited relatives at Craig
last week.

Wm. Lowrey, of near Bethel is visiting his sister Mrs. Melissa Snodgrass.

Mrs. Wm. Craig, of Craig, visited her daughter Mrs. Addie
Jones the past week.

Sam Shultz bought two yearling steers of Robt. Toy for $65.
James Goodpaster, of Forge
Mill, is on the sick list.

The farmers were rushing to finish stripping their tobacco, but the cold weather put a stop to it.
Addie Jones bought a house and lot in Salt Lick and will move to it in the near future.

Mrs. Enoch Sorrell, of south of Owingville, was the guest of her parents, J. K. Jones and wife, last week.

Upper Prickly Ash.

Robt. Jones continues poorly.
Howard Carter has grip and tonilsitis, but is improving.

Alfred Carter is able to be out.

Opal, little daughter of Coburn
Hamilton, was quite sick the past week, but is better.

H. A. Lyter fell while trying to put his wagon in the barn and cut such a gash in his upper lip that a doctor had to be called to sew it up.

Nick Burns left Tuesday for Missouri, where he will remain
if he likes the country.

John D. Manley bought a 3-
year-old mare of Clyde Bailey
for $180.

Mrs. Rebecca Ragan, of Peled
Oak, was the guest of Alfred Carter and wife last week.

Miss Maggie Carter, who had been visiting relatives here for several days, has returned to her home on Licking.

The thermometer registered 12
degrees below zero last Saturday morning.

R. L. Stone sold a cow to Jas.
Stone for $22.50.

Stapstone.

Lettie May, youngest child of Jo Ray, is very ill.

A. W. Donohew gave the young folks a party Tuesday night.

Miss Minnie Crouch left Monday to attend school at Nicholasville.

Mrs. Charlie Price was very sick the past week.

A. M. Crouch and little daughter
Ruby visited the family of H.
J. Bittinger in Mt. Sterling several days the past week.

J. E. Carmichael spent several days in Mt. Sterling last week.

Misses Fannie and Lou Moore, of Madison county, are visiting Buck Corner and wife.

Miss Ethel Uterback is no better of her illness.

Will Williamson, of Crooks, visited J. M. Steele last week.

Rube Barnes, who was hurt by a horse falling with him some time ago, died Wednesday.

Wm. Uterback is improving.

Miss Mary DeWitt, after a few weeks' visit with friends here, returned to Indiana Thursday.

John Karkick is very poorly.

Luther Bittinger spent several days last week with his parents,
in Mt. Sterling.

The 2-month-old child of Dan Ponzie, of this week, was believed to be the best of his kind.

We loved him, but he was too
well.

For soon he slept and died.

All is dark within our dwelling;
Lonely are our hearts today.

For little Samuel Earl we loved
so dearly

Has forever passed away.

George Warner is sad without baby;

We miss him every where;

Often we think of Samuel Earl
And wish he was still here.

A FRIEND.

Pebble.

We had the coldest weather last week for several years; 10 below
zero Friday morning.

Delivering tobacco has been delayed on account of the cold spell.

Oscar Bransford, wife and baby
will return to their home at La Fontaine, Ind., this week.

I. N. Powell is somewhat better of his illness; able to be up most of the time in his room.

Mrs. Etina Maldox was able to go to her parents, near Okla.,
last week.

OBITUARY.

George M. Stewart
died at his home on Indian Creek near Okla. of tonsillitis. He had been sick for several years, though confined to his room only a few months. He bore his affliction very patiently, never being known to murmur or complain and always had a cheerful word for those around him.

Geo. M. Stewart was born May 12, 1862; departed this life Jan. 1,
1910. He was married to Sarah
E. Darnell, daughter of John W.
Darnell, Jan. 4, 1889. Of this union one son was born: John E.
Stewart, of near Pebble. George
M. Stewart leaves his widow, son and mother; also two brothers,
four sisters: Robert L., of Reynoldsville; Isaac, now at the Lexington asylum; Mrs. S. O. Doggett, of Reynoldsville; Mrs. F. P.
Calvert, of Pebble; Mrs. Richard
Anderson, of Tippecanoe City, Ohio; Mrs. G. W. Risener, of Dayton, O. He joined the M. E.
Church, South, in July, 1903, and from that time until the end came lived a Christian life.

Funeral services by Rev. Thur-
man at the home Sunday, Jan. 2, at 10:30 a. m., after which the remains were followed to the family graveyard by a large procession of sorrowing friends.

Peace to his ashes.

Stoops.

The person who likes the "good old-fashioned winter" must be at the height of enjoyment.

Bigstaff & Cockrell bought of Tom Warner 20 cattle at $7 per cwt.

The little son of Clark Pierat, who was so badly burned, is still in a serious condition.

Mrs. Bert Saunders is slightly improved and will recover.

Jack and Josh Owings, Jr., were in Fleming county last week
and bought a large drove of hogs.
Wm. T. Highland, of July, is doing nicely and will soon be out.

On the first of March many changes will take place here, and we will almost have a new population.

The little child of Will White is slowly recovering from his burns.

Last week was the dullest we have experienced for several years. On account of bad roads
we had no mail for several days.
This is the deepest snow we have had since March 4th, 1902.

Miss Lettie Quisenberry will close her school this week.

M. C. Foley began work last week for the Standard Oil Co.
in Mt. Sterling.

On January 3 Sherman Hamilton assumed the duties of cashier of Oldham Bros. & Co.

Some few from here attended
Court at Owingville Monday,
the thermometer registering from 6 to 14 degrees below zero.

(Delayed.)

Over one half of the tobacco
crop has been delivered.

Mrs. Harrison Conn was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital,
at Lexington, for treatment.

Stoops is expecting great things
this year. See below for THE OUTLOOK and keep posted.

Moses Conditt has rented a farm of Sid Hart and will move to it March 1.

Mrs. Bert Saunders is still in a serious condition.

Miller McClain was called to Muncie, Ill., Thursday by the illness of his little daughter.

Thos. Karkick and family have moved to Salt Lick.

Jesse T. Morgan, of Bourbon county, has rented from Walter Reid, and Mrs. D. M. Chennault, of Richmond, a farm near Mt. Sterling, paying for it $3,200.

Mrs. Claude Foley, who has been very sick, is recovering.

M. C. Foley bought from T. F.
Rogers, in Mt. Sterling, a house and one acre of land on Winn street for $1,400. Mr. Foley will move to it in a few weeks.

Schools taken up again
the day after the shortest day.

Mr. Beasley, of
S. F. Deal last week.

The 4-month-old baby of Will Ed White fell in front of a hot fire Friday morning and was severely burned about his head.

George Warner has returned from Cooper county, Mo., where he managed the growing and stripping of a crop of tobacco.

Upper Flat Creek.

Jeff Crouch lost a work mare
by death last Sunday.

Most of the rabbits have been reading "Snow-Bound" with dire results.

Many farmers are not prepared for deep snow and their stock is suffering in consequence.

Miss Ashley Clark was given a birthday supper by her mother Saturday night. A party of her young friends were delightfully entertained and the hostess received many useful presents.

Chester, little son of Mrs. Lilly Dimmitt, continues to improve from wounds inflicted by a horse
some time ago.

Olympia.

Elder George, of Lexington, filled his appointments here Saturday and Sunday.

The Christian Church organized a Christian Endeavor Society Sunday and will hold meetings every Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Nellie Fitch is visiting her sister Mrs. Joe Williams, at Preston, this week.

Tommy Griggs left for Georgetown, Ill., last week to find work.

Ben Penix returned to Peach Orchard last week, after a few weeks' visit here to his parents.

Born, January 7, to Charles
Carpenter and wife, a son.

Aunt Susie Gray is poorly.

Mrs. Anna Turner, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting here this week.

Miss Ethel Swarts closed her school at Jackson last week.

Clyde Reed and wife, of Owing-ville, were the guests of the latter's parents, Sid Warren and wife, Saturday and Sunday.

Fortune teller—"You will be very poor until you are 35 years of age."

Impecunious poet, eagerly—
"And after that?"

"You will get used to it." Sketch.
